

EARLY CAREER CURATOR RESIDENCY

FINALISTS ANNOUNCED

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to all those who submitted their projects for The PIPA Foundation Residency for Early Career Curators, scheduled to take place in London from 15 July to 12 August 2024. The application period has now concluded, and we are thrilled to announce the selection of the five finalists who will proceed to the next stage of the selection process.

After careful consideration of the numerous creative and compelling proposals we received, the examination board faced the challenging task of choosing the top candidates. We are pleased to inform you that the following five individuals have been chosen to participate in the upcoming video interviews:

- Bruna Fernanda Vieira Silva
- Hanayrá Negreiros de Oliveira Pereira
- Jean Carlos Azuos
- João Victor Guimarães de Jesus Gomes
- Joyce Delfim

Congratulations to each of the finalists! Your outstanding projects stood out among the many submissions, reflecting your dedication to pushing the boundaries of curatorial practice.

We understand the effort and creativity invested in each proposal, making the selection process a demanding one for the examination board. We truly appreciate your commitment to contributing innovative perspectives to the field.

The finalists will receive an email, outlining the date and time of their scheduled video interviews. We wish each of you the best of luck in this next phase of the selection process.

Once again, we extend our gratitude to all applicants for their exceptional contributions.
